The "50 by 5" Campaign

Dear Luke's Wings Supporters;

As we enter 2012 with nearly 32,000 wounded warriors in hospitals around the nation, we ask for your help to continue our mission of flying wounded warriors and their families in and out of military hospitals. Our sole mission is to provide complimentary airplane tickets to wounded warriors and their families as they recover from battle injuries and surgeries.

What is the "50 by 5" Campaign?

Luke's Wings pledges to commit 50 companies and small businesses around the nation to each donate $5,000 for 2012. A successful campaign will allow us to fly every flight request we receive in 2012 as well as properly manage and administer our program going forward.

Join the Campaign Today!

The first 50 supporters to give their tax deductible donation will be listed prominently on the Luke's Wings website and will be featured in our upcoming media opportunities. We will continue to update you and your colleagues throughout the year on what families your donations helped us reunite.

What do I need to do from here?

- Add Luke's Wings to your charitable giving list for 2012.
- Make an online donation at www.lukeswings.org
- Return the back side of this letter with a $5,000+ donation.
- Contact Lindsay Kin, Executive Director of Business Development, in order to schedule an onsite visit or to learn more about the program.

Let's make 2012 the best year yet for Luke's Wings and for our deserving heroes!

Thank you!

Lindsay Kin
