WASHINGTON, D.C. (May 18, 2010) – Luke's Wings announced the First Annual Bryn Keith White Party to take place on Saturday, June 12th at Eleventh Street Lounge, in Washington, DC.

Bryn Keith custom-made, tailored, garments are made one at a time specifically patterned and designed to accommodate a customer's unique body features and tastes. All of their garments are hand cut and sewn with your specifications in mind. Bryn Keith's apparel consultants plan and coordinate your wardrobe so you are perfectly attired for all occasions – formal, business, casual or social. They offer an unparalleled selection in both the latest and classic styles. The driving theme behind the line is quality custom clothes can and should be affordable. Forging a relationship with Bryn Keith is not just about the clothes- it is also about the experience.

The First Annual Bryn Keith White Party is truly a party with a purpose; as they have teamed up with Luke's Wings to raise money to purchase travel planning services and airplane tickets for the families of wounded service members currently hospitalized at medical and rehabilitation centers throughout the country.

Join us as we share the successes and the promise of Luke's Wings while enjoying an evening at Eleventh Street Lounge which was recently voted one of Northern Virginia's Top 25 Restaurants and one of Clarendon's best lounges.

There will be a red carpet entrance, photographers, DJ & dancing, drink specials, raffle prizes, special guests and "White Party Ambassadors" throughout the evening, and much more!
