“LUKE’S WINGS RAISES A TOAST TO OUR VETERANS”

Washington, D.C., (November 14, 2008) - On Veteran’s Day, November 11, Luke’s Wings and Champion’s Sports Bar hosted an event for our veterans at Champions Sports Bar, 1206 Wisconsin Avenue, Washington, D.C.

Luke’s Wings supporters were joined by many active and retired service members, many in uniform. Service members in uniform were admitted for free and were offered an open bar until 9pm. All told, over 150 people attended the event and gave generously to Luke’s Wings. The 50/50 raffle winner, Teryal Turner, donated his winnings back to Luke’s Wings to help fly a family of a wounded services member to the hospital during the holidays. The event was a great success. Luke’s Wings raised more than $1,500 at the door, in donations, and from the raffle in just under three hours.

Special thanks to Champions, America’s Original Sports Bar for their support
