

PRIVACY POLICIES

Luke's Wings does not collect any information about anyone unless they are applying for airplane tickets and/or making donations to support our cause. The following policies follow:

This privacy policy sets out how Luke's Wings uses and protects any information that you give when you use this website.

Luke's Wings is committed to ensuring that your privacy is protected. We only collect information when someone makes a donation or applies for airplane tickets.

When booking flights, we may collect the following information:

- Name of the Wounded Warrior or Veteran requesting flights
- Names, contact information, DOB, and SSN for those traveling (as required by the airlines)

What we do with the information we gather:

- The flight applications are used by our travel agents to book flights
- Internal record keeping

When you make an online donation:

- We outsource to Piryx. Their privacy policy can be found at: <http://www.piryx.com/privacy-policy/>

When sending us a donation in the mail:

- Name and address of the donor
- Amount donated

What we do with this information:

- Send you a thank you card
- Send you our newsletter
- Request your future support
- If you specifically ask us not to share future news, we do our best to avoid contacting you again
